PROSPECTUS
OF THE Louisianian.

In the endeavor to establish another Republican journal in New Orleans, the proprietors of the LOUISIANIAN, propose to fill a necessity which has been long, and sometimes painfully—felt to exist. In the transition state of our people, in their struggling efforts to attain that position in the Body Politic, which we conceive to be their due, it is regarded that much information, guidance, encouragement, counsel and reproof have been lost, in consequence of the lack of a medium, through which these deficiencies might be supplied. We shall strive to make the LOUISIANIAN a desideratum in these respects.

POLICY.

As our motto indicates, the LOUISIANIAN shall be "Republican at all times and under all circumstances" We shall advocate the security and enjoyment of broad civil liberty, the absolute equality of all men before the law, and an impartial distribution of honor and patronage to all who merit them.

Desirous of allaying animosities, of obliterating the memory of the bitter past, of promoting harmony and union among all classes and between all interests, we shall advocate the removal of all political disabilities, foster kindness and forbearance, where malignity and resentment reigned, and seek for fairness and justice where wrong and oppression prevailed. Thus united in our aims and objects, we shall conserve our best interests, elevate our noble State, to an enviable position among her sister States, by the development of her illimitable resources, and secure the full benefits of the mighty changes in the history and condition of the people and the Country.

Believing that there can be no true liberty without the supremacy of law, we shall urge a strict and undiscriminating administration of justice.

TAXATION.

We shall support the doctrine of an equitable division of taxation among all classes, a faithful collection of the revenues, economy in the expenditures, conformably with the exigencies of the State or Country and the discharge of every legitimate obligation.

EDUCATION.

We shall sustain the carrying out of the provisions of the act establishing our common school system, and urge as a paramount duty the education of our youth, as vitally connected with their own enlightenment, and the security and stability of a Republican Government.

FINAL.

By a generous, manly, independent, and judicious conduct, we shall strive to rescue our paper, from an ephemeral, and temporary existence, and establish it upon a basis, that if we cannot "command," we shall at all events "deserve" success.

ROOMS STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE Republican Party, State of Louisiana, New Orleans, March 18, 1872.—To the Republican State of Louisiana:

The Republican State Central Committee having, in the discharge of the duties imposed upon it by the last State Convention, arrived at the regular period which has been set apart by the usages of the party for its State Conventions, and having authorized its President to issue the usual call, therefore deem the occasion suitable to address these brief remarks upon the political situation to their fellow Republicans. The quadrennial election for a President of the United States occurs this year. The election of this high officer of the Republic, whose character and political views are so important, especially to the Republicans of the South, and whose selection almost decides our political fate for the next four years, and perhaps the whole future, makes this election one of the deepest and most vital interest to all our people. We feel that we speak their unanimous sentiment when we invite them to respond to the call of the National Republican Committee, and advise them to send our best representative men to the Philadelphia Convention, to help in selecting a tried, true and unflinching Republican to be our next President. Our State election is also of the greatest importance. We have to elect a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Superintendent of Public Education, Attorney General, a new General Assembly, and Representatives in Congress. In fact, this election is to determine a question still more important to us than who shall be the next President. It is to determine for the next four years whether the State government shall be Republican or Democratic; in favor of equal rights, or against them; in favor of progress, education and improvement for all people, black as well as white, or in favor only of white progress, education and improvement, and opposed to equal advantages for the black people; whether we shall retain all that we have won and go forward, or whether we shall lose all and go back to where we were at the close of the war.

We wish plainly and distinctly to understand the fact that all parties opposed to the Republican party, whether under the name of Democrats, Reformers, People's party, or any other title whatever, are simply the old Democratic party under a new name, and have for their object but one thing, that is to throw the State government out of the control of the Republican party and into the hands of their enemies. Our people will also see that to defeat the strong and determined efforts of the enemy to again get control of the State, one thing is the great essential, that all Republicans shall be UNITED AND WORK TOGETHER. If we do this, victory is certain.

To this end we cordially invite all true and earnest Republicans, without regard to past differences, to unite in this convention and to nominate such a ticket and adopt such a platform as will command the respect and support of the whole people.

All good Republicans also desire that our party shall, as we are assured it will, declare itself decidedly, distinctly and definitely in favor of retrenchment, reform, reduction of taxes and the removal of all unnecessary burdens on commerce and trade, and in favor of equal and just legislation for all interests and all classes of persons.

By order of the committee.

P. B. S. PINCHBACK,
President.

WILLIAM VIGERS, Recording Secretary State Central Committee.

By authority vested in me, and in pursuance to the following resolution unanimously adopted at a meeting of the State Central Committee of the Republican party, held March 18, 1870, at the committee rooms, to wit—

Important Notice.

ROOMS STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE Republican Party of Louisiana, New Orleans, April 12, 1872.—At a meeting of the Republican State Executive Committee, held on the eleventh instant, the following resolution offered by John Parsons, Esq., and seconded by Hon. A. W. Faulkner, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the convention called by the State Committee to meet in New Orleans on the second day of May, 1872, be postponed until Tuesday, the twenty-eighth day of May, 1872, and that notice be given to the parish and ward committees of the several parishes and wards.

AN EDITOR'S TABLE.

The editor sat in his sanctum,
His countenance furrowed with care,
His mind at the bottom of business,
His feet on the top of a chair;
His chair-arm an elbow supporting,
His right hand upholding his head,
His eyes on the dusty old table,
With different documents spread.

There were thirty long pages from Howler,
With underlined capitals topped,
And a short requisition from Growler,
Requesting his newspaper stopped;
There where lyrics from Gusher, the poet,
Concerning sweet flowrets and zephyrs,
And a stray gem from Plodder, the farmer,
Describing a couple of heifers.

There were billets from beautiful maidens,
And bills from a grocer or two,
And his best leader hitched to a letter,
Which inquired if he wrote it or who;
There were raptures of praises from writers
Of the smooth and mellifuous school,
And one of his rival's last papers,
Informing him he was a fool.

There were several long resolutions,
With names telling whom they were by,
Canonizing some harmless old codger,
Who had done nothing worse than to die;
There were traps on the table to catch him,
And serpents to sting and to smite;
There were gift enterprises to sell him,
And biters attempting to bite.

There are long, staring "ads" from the city,
And money with never a one,
Which added, "Please give this insertion,
And send in your bill when you've done;"
There were letters from organizations—
Meetings, wants, and their laws—
Which said, "Can you print this announcement
For the good of our glorious cause?"

There were tickets inviting his presence
To festivals, parties and shows,
Wrapped in notes, with "Please give us a notice,"
Demurely slipped in at the close;
In short, as his eye took the table,
And ran over its ink-spattered trash,
There was nothing it did not encounter,
Excepting, perhaps, it was—Cash.

The Administration—Its Enemies.

In this and neighboring parishes, the foes, the most unrelenting, of the State Administration, are in the main, men who at last election, proclaimed with loud acclamation their preference for H. C. Warmoth, as Governor of Louisiana. Some whose enthusiasm even carried them so far as to openly avow their intention of supporting Gov. Warmoth for the second office within the gift of the American people. Of these men, there are two classes—one composed of old played-out Democrats, who now stand without the pale of party lines, and who, in order to accomplish certain ends, would forfeit the respect of their fellow-citizens.—The Buncomb leaders of that clique, failing to receive recognition at the hands of Gov. Warmoth, now let loose their mighty wrath. The snake so long coiled rids itself of its venom, and fastens its fangs on the body which gave life. Of that class little need we say. Our readers know what estimate to place upon their influence and character. Disappointed in everything, rebuked by honest men, they now seek within the Customhouse fold, a comfort for their office-racking brain. Their ardor will dampen as the ides of November draw near.

Another class, the less numerous, is composed of men whom society abhors. Men whose honesty has always been a question of doubt.—These men have neither influence or ability. Let loose in the lowest pit of degradation, they have become the center point of all villainies.—They are, truly speaking, the scum, the refuse of the two parties. Their names are used as a by-word of scorn. Dispised by white and black, there are none so lo as to do them reverence.—St. Francisville Republican.

Influence of Female Society.

It is better for you, says Thackeray, to pass an evening once or twice in a lady's drawing room, even though the conversation is slow, and you know the girl's song by heart, than in a club, tavern, or the pit of a theater, All amusements of youth to which virtuous women are not admitted, rely on it, are deleterious in their nature. All men who avoid female society have full perceptions, and are stupid, or have gross tastes, and revolt against what is pure. You club swaggerers, who are sucking the butts of billiard cues all night, call female society inspired. Poetry is inspired to a yokel; beauty has no charms for a blind man; music does not please a poor beast who does not know one tune from another; I protest I can sit for a whole night talking to a well regulated, kindly woman about her girl coming out, or her boy at Eton, and liking the evening's entertainment. One of the great benefits a man may derive from a woman's society is, that he is bound to be respectful to them. The habit is of great good to your moral man, depend upon it. Our education makes us the most eminently selfish men in the world. We fight for ourselves, we push for ourselves, we yawn for ourselves, we light our pipes, and say we won't go out; we prefer ourselves and our ease; and the greatest good that comes to a man from a woman's society is, that he has to think of somebody besides himself—somebody to whom he is bound to be constantly attentive and respectful.

☞ An editor lately sent into the composing-room two articles, one of which was an obituary notice and the other a funny annecdote. The headings were accidentally changed by the type-setters, and when the paper appeared the editor was horrified to see the obituary notice headed "A Good Joke," while the funny anecdote was prefixed with the caption, "Sad Announcement."

GIRLS, DON'T TALK SLANG.

Girls, don't talk slang. If its necessary that any one in the family should do that, let it be your big brother, though I would advise him not to adopt "pigeon English" when there is an elegant systematized language thathe can just as well use. But don't you do it. You can have no idea how it sounds to ears unused or averse to it to hear a young lady, when she is asked if she will go with you to some place, answer. "Not much!" or, if requested to do something which she does not wish to hear her say, "Can't see it."

Not long ago I heard a young miss, who is educated and accomplished, in speaking of a young man say that she intended to "go for him!" and when her sister asked her assistance at some work she answered "Not for Joe."

Now, young ladies of unceptionable character and really good education fall into this habit, thinking it shows smartness to answer back in slang phrase, and they soon slip flippantly from their tongues with a saucy pertness that is neither lady-like nor becoming. "I bet" or "you bet" is well enough among men who are tracing horses or land; but the contrast is startling and positively shocking to hear those words issue from the lips of a young lady. They seem at once to surround her with the rougher associations or men's daily life, and bring her down from the pedestal of purity, whereon she is placed, to their own coarse level.

A Novel Pair of Stockings.

"I believe women will do a good deal for a dance," said an old M. D.; "they are imensely fond of sport. I remember once in my life I used to flirt with one, who was a great favorite in a provincial town where I lived, and she confided to me that she had no stockings to appear in, and that without them her presence at the ball was out of the question."

"That was a hint for you to buy the stockings," said a friend.

"No; you're out," said the doctor. "She knew that I was as poor as herself; but, though she could not rely on my purse, she had every confidence in my taste and judgment, and consulted me on a plan she had formed for going to the ball in proper trim. Now, what do you think it was?"

"To go in cotton, I suppose," returned the friend.

"Out again, sir." You'd never guess it, and only a woman could have hit upon the expedient. It was the fashion in those days for ladies in full dress to wear pink stockings, and she proposed painting her legs."

"Painting her legs!" exclaimed his friend.

"Fact, sir," said the Doctor; "and relied upon me for telling her if the cheat was successful."

"And was it?" asked his friend.

"Don't be in a hurry, friend. I complied on one condition, namely: that I should be the painter."

"Oh! you old rascal," said his friend.

"Don't interrupt me, gentlemen," said the Doctor. "I got some pink accordingly; and I defy all the hosiers in Nottingham to make a tighter fit than I did on little Jennie. A prettier pair of stockings I never saw."

"And she went to the ball?"

"She did."

"And the trick succeeded?"

"So completely," said the doctor, "that several ladies asked her to recommend her dyer to them. So you see what a woman will do to go to a dance. Poor Jennie! she was a merry minx. By-the-by, she boxed my ears that night for a joke I made about the stockings. 'Jennie,' said I, 'for fear your stockings should fall down while you are dancing, hadn't you better let me paint a pair of garters on them?'"

BEAUTY.

Toil as a man may, tower aloft and boast with vain-glorious pride of his strength and comeliness; though he move an Apollo in proportions, a Hercules in might an Achilles in value a Pericles in eloquence, to a handful of ill-savoured dust must he come at last. Let beautiful woman ransack creation to enhance her charms gathered from every clime its rarest gifts, silks, cashmeres, linens, laces, velvets, plumes, jewels and precious stones, paints, enamels, dyes, gewgaws and flubdubberries countless as the stars that twinkle in the blue empyrean or the sands upon the seashore. Let her shine resplendent in all the gorgeous tinselry of fashion, a sylph in form, a seraph in voice, a rainbow in costume, a goddess in gaace and A WOMAN in all true loveliness, one breath of pestilence sweeps past and and a few plated nail-heads in a coffin-lid are all the ornaments she requires.—[P. Donan.

To Make a Fashionable Woman.

Take ninety pounds of flesh and bones—but chiefly bones—wash clean, bore holes in the ears and cut off the small toes; bend the back to conform to the Grecian bend, the Boston dip, the kangaroo droop, the Saratoga slope, or the bullfrog break, as the taste inclines; then add three yards of lines, one hundred yards of ruffles and seventy-five yards of edging, eighteen yards of dimity, one pair of silk or cotton hose with patent hip attachments, one pair false calves, six yards flannel, embroidered, one pair balmoral boots with heels three inches high, four pounds whalebone in strips, seventeen hundred and sixty yards of steel wire, three-quarters of a mile of tape, ten pounds of raw cotton or two wire hemispheres, one wire basket to hold a bushel, four copies of the New York Herald, (triple sheet), one hundred and fifty yards of silk or other dress goods, five hundred yards of point lace, fourteen hundred yards fringe and other trimmings, twelve gross of buttons, one box pearl powder, one saucer carmine and an old hare's foot, one bushel of false hair frizzled and fretted a la maniaque, one bundle Japanese switches, with rats, mice and other varmints, one peck of hair pins, one lace handkerchief, nine inches square with patent holder. Perfume with otto of roses, or sprinkle with nine drops of the "Blessed Baby" or "West End." Stuff the head with fashionable novels ball tickets, play bills and wedding cards, some scandal, a great deal of lost time and a very little sage; add a half grain of common sense three scruples of religion, and a modicum of modesty. Garnish with ear-rings, finger-rings breast-pins, chains, bracelets, feathers and flowers to suit the taste. Pearls and Diamonds may be thrown in if you have them; if not, past and pinchbeck from the dollar-store will do.

Whirl all around in a fashionable circle and stew by gaslight for six hours.

Great care should be taken that the thing is not overdone.

If it does not rise sufficiently add more copies of the New York Herald.

This dish is highly ornamental, and will do to put at the head of your table on grand occasions, but is not suitable for every-day use at home, being very expensive and indigestible. It sometimes gives men the heart-burn and causes them to break, and is certain death to children.

If you have not the ingredients at hand, you can buy the article ready-made in any of our large cities—if you have money enough.

☞ Artemus Ward was on a slow California train, and he went to the conductor and suggested that the cowcatcher was on the wrong end of the train: "For," said he, "you will never overtake a cow, you know: but if you'd put it on the other end it might be useful, for now there's nothin' on earth to hender a cow from walkin' right in and bitin' the folks!"

TO OUR CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

We will be glad if you notify our office of any delinquency on the part of our carrier, as our arrangements are such that every issue of our paper should be regularly delivered.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

The proprietorship of THE LOUISIANIAN having changed, by the withdrawal of Mr. C. C. Antoine, the paper will hereafter be issued weekly, commencing on Saturday, April 27, 1872.

☞At the Congo Square Reform meeting Wednesday night, a bystander remarked that the Reformers, coming between the two great parties would be crushed as between "the upper and nether mill stone."

☞The Reformers dodge the Presidential question. Does anyone suppose they can separate State and City from National politics? The reformers will be obliged to take sides and show hands.

☞The Customhouse Convention settled one thing: That among the colored members of the party a great desire for union prevails, and a pull altogether and that the disuniting spirit comes entirely from the white side.

GOOD APPOINTMENT.—The appointment of Hon. J. W. Quinn, as one of the Commissioners of Police, by acting Governor Pinchback, is one that connot but receive the hearty approval of all good Republicans. Mr. Quinn is a native of Louisiana. Thoroughly acquainted with the various phases of character such a position will bring him in contact with. He has had some experience in public office before, and is otherwise possessed of that ability which together with the above completely qualify him for the satisfactory discharge of the duties of his new office. We congratulate the Police Board on the acquisition of Mr. Quinn, and felicitate Mr. Quinn on the distinction conferred on him.

JUSTICE AT LAST.

At last justice is done the mass of the people in the following law which embodies the spirit of Republicanism:

AN ACT

To amend Art. 644 of the Code of Practice.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly convened, That Art. 644 of the Code of Practice be amended so as to correspond with Art. 1992 of the Civil Code, and so as to read as follows: The Sheriff cannot seize the linen and clothes belonging to the debtor or his wife; nor his bed, nor those of his family; nor his arms and military accoutrements, nor the tools and instruments and books necessary for the exercise of the calling, trade or profession by which he makes a living; nor shall he in any case seize the rights of personal servitude, of use and habitation, of usufruct to the estate of a minor child; nor the income of dotal property; nor money due for the salary of an officer; nor wages; nor recompense for personal services; nor house or kitchen furniture to the value of six hundred dollars.

O. H. BREWSTER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
P. B. S. PINCHBACK,
Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.
Approved April 23, 1872.
H. C. WARMOTH,
Governor of the State of Louisiana.
A true copy:
F. J. HERRON, Secretary of State.

In the endorsement we give the above law we do not intimate that any man should avoid the prompt payment of his debt. Every cent he owes should be paid. But official tyranny should be checked; that system of spoliation by which a poor man, fallen into misfortune, is made the prey of gangs of deputy sheriffs and constables, led by spiteful and greedy creditors, who, when they set out for a man, will drown in costs and multiplication of suits everything he owns for a small debt. This law shields the defenceless, protects the unfortunate, covers the poor man and enables him to live under his own roof whenever he stumbles in business, until he can recuperate and start out anew. It says to the landlord, "Thus far go but no further." It is true, in many instances, it will enforce a cash basis of dealing, as the man who does not own over $600 affords no security to creditors, except in his honor. This is all the better. It will correct extravagance, and put a stop to the running of bills; every man knows how fast they run when once the start. Landlords will demand other security beside the furniture which, under the old law he owns as soon as it is in his house, and the tenant can only get it out of his hands by paying him the rent. Most any man in steady employment can give security and then he will not be turned out on the sidewalk. The landlords who show tyranical traits are in a fever of disappointment over this law. The old French and Spanish Government left a legacy of odious laws on the statute book which successive legislatures of landowners planters and rentiers repealed and re-enacted. These laws made the landlord into a royal master and the tenants his vassals. If a single months rent was unpaid he could bring a cart to the door and take off the contents of the house to be advertised and sold with the costs on the tenant. The wolves are now beaten off and time is given the man who occupies his house to pay, and there are few men who will refuse to settle when it is left to their honor. Hereafter, any man who is disposed to "crowd" his debtor will find it difficult to change the collection of a debt with a persecution, and while we protect no man in his rascality by which he could avoid the payment of just debts, we are glad that a stopper has been put on the terrors of small creditors.

☞The Times calls upon Mr. Fellowes to answer and afford proofs of the fact that Governor Warmoth received $600,000 to sign the funding bill, and Fellowes does not answer "worth a cent." These hoary Democrats, whereof Mr. F. is one of the leading lustres, have played their denouncing game in lieu of developing any political strength. They even denounce one another when one gets a soft thing which the other could'nt get. The Democratic fox has been reaching for provender ever since 1868 and now chop fallen, disgusted and tailed down, he turns up his nose at the grapes beyond his reach. Good bye old fox.

☞On Monday last we had the pleasure of a visit from Hon. Robt. H. Woods, Mayor of Natchez, Miss., and Col. S. J. Ireland, Proctor of Alcorn University, Rodney, Miss.

POLITICAL COMBINATIONS.

The political sky is again overcast, and masses of cloudy changes constantly pass before the eye. What was in space a month ago, "no bigger than a man's hand," has in the Liberal Republican movement developed a marvellous significance in the field, and as the glass sweeps the horizon it shows no larger element than this in view. To talk then of modeling policies and shaping parties a twelvemonth hence, or even sixty days, is, in view of these rapid combinations, perfectly useless. The atmospher, however, is clearing fast, and it is plainly seen that the contest is narrowed down into one line of battle disputed by two contending hosts having a Northern and Western wing, and resting upon the South as on its rear. It is here in the old slave State where the battle will be fought out; here where the enfranchised races hold the balance of power in their hands and where they will decide the contest. Skillful leaders are on both sides; the straight out Democrats are simply the guerillas who can do nothing but harrass the great contending hosts, and as a party are entirely out of the question. As our people hold the balance where are, we to give the weight? Upon that side which will best secure the rights for which the mass of colored people struggle. The side which is the most liberal and that shows less of the cloven foot of exclusion and caste. A colored man's party is out of the question—it is not Republican. For nothing in a party which makes questions of race or nationality a cause of difference is either liberal or just on in the American sense, and is no more correct than for a party to be down on all men with red hair. We believe no sensible man advocates a colored man's party. Our strength lies in a union and combination with the most liberal of the two hosts; where camp fires are lit up along the whole line; we must join in and take sides; to skirmish on our own hook would result in our being beaten by both armies, who would then see in us a common enemy. It is probably the first time in the history of the country where "the colored vote", will elect a president. Our old enemies, the Democrats, are beaten from the field; the spirit of their party had to go down. Upon this Titan the age has heaped mountains of rebuke and resentment, and though the monster struggles now and then under his punishment, spitting fire and venom, and breathing a vengeance he is powerless to wreak, his dominion has passed away forever and ever. That party which will catch up and foster any one of the progeny of evils left by the Democrats will be the one that shall go down. Eternal justice has said it. The colored people can do nothing without combination and in this lies our great strength. We demand the simple privileges of freedom, and claim none of the evils. Whichever of these parties is the straightest on the true Republican line, is our party, and will receive our support in November.

"THE MERRY MONTH OF MAY" was ushered in by a fine picnic at the Oakland Course by the Young Ladies Benevolent Association, to which we had the pleasure of an invitation. In response thereto, this writer put in a timely appearance. The festivities were soon at their height and identifying ourselves with them soon forgot all toil and care, notwithstanding the rain in the morning kept many away. The attendance was large and the afternoon turned out fine, enabling all present to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent.

Following in the lead of the above the Ladies League gave a pic-nic at the same place on Monday last, which was also a pleasant and successful affair in which all enjoyed a share of the amusements. The arrangements as to music and management were perfect, the table well supplied, and the day's entertainment passed off to the entire satisfaction of all present.

☞Since the property-holders are holding meetings to organize for the purpose of resisting the payment of their taxes, would it not be well for the rent payers to organize for the purpose of resisting the payment of the exorbitant rents now charged by these Shylocks.

A POLICE JANGLE.

On Saturday night, April 27th, Senator A. R. Harris was arrested at the corner of Canal and Basin streets, charged with being drunk, disturbing the peace, and resisting the officer. His name was somewhat altered in the police books, and his occupation placed as a merchant. Opposite to this is the phrase, "did not appear," which is explained to mean that he did not appear in court, setting it and its officers at defiance. At the time of his arrest, he said, we learn from the police, that he would have them dismissed, as well as Major Robinson, because they were the friends of Warmoth and enemies of the negro. The name of the officer making the arrest was O'Hara, who on Monday was dismissed by the Board, for illegally arresting a citizen. Yesterday morning Major Robinson was notified that he had been removed from the Board of Police Commissioners, and a colored man named J. W. Quinn appointed by acting Governor Pinchback in his place, the alleged cause being, it is stated, "because Senator Harris demanded it, on account of Major Robinson not having left home to apologize for his arrest, and refusing to at once dismiss the officer who was only acting in discharge of his duty."

The real reason of the dismissal, as stated to our reporter, was, "that Leiut. Gov. Pinchback desired to get the police entirely under his control for the next election, as he then intended to run for Governor, with Senator Harris as Leiutenant Governor, and that Major Robinson acted in opposition to him in this wish."

These statements, from parties who are ready to verify to them on oath, need no comment to show that the next election will be one of race and color, as far as the State is concerned.

We copy the above from the New Orleans Times of Thursday, May 9, for the purpose of correcting the gross misrepresentations with reference to the removal of Major Robinson from the Board of Police Commissioners. The appointment of Mr. Robinson, originally, was a cause of known dissatisfaction to the general public, and indeed so unpopular was it with the Republican party that Governor Warmoth omitted to risk his confirmation by the Senate of 1871, and after the adjournment of that session Governor Warmoth reappointed him. For various reasons the Major's unpopularity increased to such an evident extent that Governor Warmoth was again forced to withhold his name from the session of the Senate of 1872; doubtless the Governor had satisfactory reasons for his action in the premises, and we have no desire to impugn his motives; but when the duties of the executive devolved upon Mr. Pinchback, he viewed this matter in an entirely different aspect, and believed that the removal of Major Robinson would meet the approval of his party and the people in general which we believe it has done, the carping of the Times to the contrary notwithstanding.

With the circumstances attending the arrest alluded to we are unacquainted, but we sincerely believe the allegation of improper motive, for the course pursued by the Police Board, as well as by Mr. Pinchback, towards officers who by coincidence may have incurred displeasure, to be utterly without foundation and the mere creature of a fertile immagination.

So far as the imputation against Mr. Pinchback for the appointment of "Mr. Quinn, a colored man" is concerned it is unnecessary for us to repudiate the silly charge of desiring to secure control of the Police force for the purpose stated, as Mr. Pinchback has openly and repeatedly avowed that he did not desire to be a candidate for Governor. We expect however that Mr. Pinchback has about grown tired of these constant imputations, and we would scarcely be surprised to find his adventurous spirit driven to this complexion at last.

☞We are informed that the purchase and transfer of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, on the corner of Gasquet and Liberty streets, have been so far concluded by the American Missionary Association, that to-morrow at 11 o'clock, Rev. C. H. Thompson will conduct Divine Service therein according to the formula of his creed.

This minister is well and favorably known among us, and it is only necessary to announce the fact to secure him a large congregation.

☞Early in the week many of the gentlemen of our State who attended the Cincinnati Convention returned to the city, and on Wednesday, midnight, Governor Warmoth and the remaining delegates came home.

☞It is the intention of the proprietors of the LOUISIANIAN to make it an independent journal, attacking wherever their is need of attack, and giving praise where praise is due, no matter whether the party or parties be white, colored or black, Republican or Democrat.

RELIGIOUS ENTERPRISE.

DEDICATION OF A NEW CHURCH.

The Free Mission Baptist Association of this city has just furnished another apt and instructive illustration of the value and importance of persistent well directed effort.

Six years ago a mere handful of devoted men and women associated themselves together and formed a religious society in New Orleans. Unknown and unobserved they labored for the increase of their number and the extension of their influence. Aided in their efforts by the parent society North, they were enabled to secure a building in which to conduct their services, and a pastor to have the oversight of the "little flock."

Success has gradually but surely attended their struggles, until on Sunday, May 5th, we find this society numbering hundreds of members, with an established reputation, dedicating a magnificent structure erected at a cost of not less than twenty-one thousand dollars; and it is highly gratifying to learn that the building is encumbered only to the amount of five thousand dollars. During these years of labor it has been our good fortune to encourage many of the efforts of this association and it is therefore with peculiar satisfaction that we observe the realization of the fervent wishes of our friends of the Free Mission Baptist Association. The building is on Common street, between Claiborne and Derbigny streets, and presents a very imposing appearance. The basement is devoted to educational purposes, while the church is on the second floor. Both stories are tastefully fitted up, and on the whole the edifice will bear favorable comparison with any similar building in the South.

FRED. DOUGLASS ON LOUISIANIANS.

The last issue of the New National Era contains a lengthy and interesting description of the trip of Frederick Douglass Esq. to New Orleans, written by himself.

We copy the following with reference to three well known gentlemen:

"While in New Orleans we were the guest of Lieutenant Governor P. B. S. Pinchback, and it is due to him to say that he was too much of a gentleman to impose upon us his supposed Warmoth predilections, or to commit us for or against either faction of the Republican party in the State. His sole aim seemed to be to make our visit to the Crescent city useful to our common cause, and every way pleasant to ourselves; and it is not too much to assure him from this distance that he admirably succeeded in both particulars. Mr Pinchback is a colored man, but only colored enough to be thus classed by the most skillful discerners of proscribed blood. Any where outside of the United States he might pass for a Spaniard, a Frenchman' an Italian, or an East Indian, but here, where color is made more important than character, he is easily and quickly coupled with the hated race. In person he is about the medium size, symmetrical in form, neat and trim in his apparal, perhaps a little dainty in respect to the latter. He is neither fat nor lean, and is of that "make up" from which we may safely expect sustained, protracted, and energetic action, without weariness. That he is a man of courage his history not less than his appearance fully proves. No man less courageous than himself could have talked and acted in Louisiana as he did during all the war and held his ground as he has. He was a captain during the war, and has been a prominent politician in the State since the war. His bold words and measures have fixed upon him much of the smothered wrath of the old regime, but he moves about freely among men ready for any emergency, and with an air of repose which comes of manly courage and conscious safety.

We heard very little of Governor Pinchback in the way of speech-making in the convention; but we heard enough to convince us that he is a cool and clear-headed debater and a man of real power among men. Many and bitter things have been said of his early career. The moral atmosphere of New Orleans has never been noted for its purity and freedom from vice. Like most young men who have spent their early manhood in that city, he has probably been addicted to habits which he now regrets and which he has now wholly abondoned. He is said to be an ambitious man, and the charge is doubtless true, but we believe that he would as soon cut off his right arm, as to prove false to the cause of the colored people of Louisiana. There was much in the talent and character exhibited among the members of the New Orleans Convention to confirm our oft-repeated conviction—that the South will produce its own colored leaders. The colored man from the North who goes South expecting to find himself head and shoulders above his Southern brethren, will soon have the conceit taken out of him. He may for the time have the advantage that experience and education at the North has given him, but this advantage will speedily disappear.

It is quite common to attribute all the mental excellence which may at any time be exhibited in colored men, to their mixture with the white race. This arrogant fallacy was well rebuked by the speeches of men of unmixed blood in the convention. Much of the assumed mental superiority of the mulatto and quadroon over the jet black man of the South is due to their superior advantages of education and the freer contact they have had with educated whites. One of the most agreeable gentlemen we met in New Orleans—a man whom we are proud to call our friend—was General Barber, a man of unquestioned and uninterrupted African descent. Captain Boree another, and a grandson of General Dessaline; the man next to Toussaint L'Overture, the chief agent of the liberation and independence of Hayti. The grandson carries to-day in his face the lineaments of the great General from whom he is descended. Knowing as we do from the history of the great struggle in Santo Domingo, and of the part taken in that struggle by Dessaline, it was worth our whole tour to New Orleans to see this one of his descendants. With such men as Barber and Boree in the South, it will not be easy to reverse the wheels of liberty in that region. We are not dazzled by military show, but, honored as we were with a military escort when we left New Orleans, it is due to say that we were more than pleased with the soldierly bearing and decorous behavior of the colored men as well as their officers on that memorable occasion The sight of such a military demonstration, uniforms glittering in the sun, banners flying, and splendid martial music sounding through the streets of the great city, told more eloquently than words can tell, of the vast and wonderful changes which have come over the whole country.

Meeting of Republican Club No. 2.

CARROLLTON, JEFFERSON PARISH,
Saturday, May 4, 1872.

At a regular meeting of the above Club, held on Saturday, May 4, 1872, the question being raised as to the best plan of adoption to harmonize the Republicans in this parish and State, a motion offered by H. P. Taylor prevailed, granting a participation of all Republicans in this meeting, upon which motion having been adopted, the following preamble and resolutions were offered by W. Paul Green, and unanimously adopted by the Club:

WHEREAS The State Convention called by the President of the Customhouse State Central Committee of the Republican party of Louisiana on the 30th of April, 1872, for the purpose of electing delegates to the National Convention to be holden in Philadelphia on the 5th day of June 1872, for the purpose of electing a President and Vice President of the United States; and

WHEREAS The above mentioned Convention did adjourn sine die, on motion of a delegate from this parish, without allowing a fair and deliberate expression of the sentiments of many delegates (good, honest, tried and true Republicans) who were ready to sacrifice all preferments for the purpose of uniting the two branches of the Republican party; and,

Whereas, An exhibit of unity and friendship was shown to Lieutenant Governor Pinchback in that assembly which convinces us that the PEOPLE are willing to come together if the leaders will allow them, Therefore, be it

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

TO THE

American People

OF THE INTRODUCTION

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE UNITED STATES OF

Dr. G. Colletso's

CELEBATED EUROPEAN RENOWNED ALTERATIVE PILLS.

The success of which in England, France, Germany, Austria and Prussia is unprecidented, having entirely superseded all magnesias, salts, seltzers, oils, etc., of every description, and are universally acknowledged to be the most effective and agreeable Purgative ever yet introduced.

Dr. Colletso has just completed arrangements to supply the people in America with his valuable Pills, and to prevent any imitation of them, manufactures them at his Central Depot, No. 32 Carondelet street, New Orleans, where orders are already pouring in from all parts of the country. Dr. Calleteo, to assure the people that his

are not gotten up on speculation and never yet tried, would state that he is a graduate member of the Royal College of Surgeons in London, and during his extensive practice for the last twenty-five years in Europe, has abored to produce some medicine which would come within the reach of all, and and which would effectnally cure a large number of complaints so general, and for the want of an article of this kind generally goes neglected until the healt is impaired and undermined and the constitution shattered. He, therefore, has tried them effectually in Europe for the last fifteen years, with the most satisfactory results, and their success has been so complete, that it has astonished even himself, and surpassed his most sanguine expectations. One or two boxes save hundreds of dollars in doctors' fees every year in curing the following complaints, which are at the foundation of all diseases:

If your blood is rancid or vitiated, purify it with

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If your skin is diseased and you are covered with pimples, boils, blotches, old sores, scurvy or scrofula,

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS will remove and cure them all.

If you are worse, and have Ulcers, Cancer or Tumors, the effect is magical and the cure complete in taking

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If your Liver is sluggish and you are suffering with jaundice and palpitation of the heart, you can be cured by taking

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If your digestion is bad, and you are constipated, your skin dry and feverish, your head hot and aching, your mouth and lips parched and your eyes red and constipated, or inflamed, you will find immediate relief in taking

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If you have inflammation of the stomach, bowels, womb, kidneys or bladder, with pain in the small of the back, difficulty in stooping without falling, weakness in the knees and dizziness in the head, with dimness of sight, you can remove the inflammation and restore your strength by using

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If you have an enfeebled and debilitated constitution, and are afflicted with lassitude, loss of memory, loss of sleep, loss of appetite, short breath, and are nervous and restless, with bad circulation of the blood, try

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If you reside in a climate where you are liable to Yellow Fever, Typhoid or Typhus Fever, or Fever and Ague, you can escape these diseases entirely by taking as a preventive

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

In spring and summer, when dysentery and diarrhœa are so prevalent among children and adults, one box of

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS will check the complaint and cure you at once. Should you be attacked with that dread disease, Cholera, so fatal in its effects, its perfectly harmless if you are provided with a box of

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS!

The following is only one of thousands of thousands of testimonials that could be published, but as it is from four of the most eminent Physicians in London, it is considered substantial proof of their efficacy in Fever and Cholera cases:

12 HYDE PARK GATE,
London, August 15, 1871.

Dr. G. Colletso:

DEAR SIR—We have pleasure in informing you that after several trials of your valuable ALTERATIVE PILLS, both among our outside patients and especially in the Fever and Cholera Hospitals, we have found that in every case where your Pills were given in time, that they invariably checked the disease at once, and especially so in all Cholera cases, not a single life of which has been lost wherever we have used them. Such is our confidence, after having proved them by five years' experience, we have decided to adopt their use altogether, and desire to express to you our most distinguished regard for so valuable and useful a discovery. Please forward to above address one gross boxes of your ALTERATIVE PILLS, and find inclosed cheque for same, and oblige your most obedient servants,

A. K. WYMAN, Bart., M. D.
JOHN F. MARTIN, M. D.
HENRY C. RODEN, M. D.
C. K. TRACY, M. D.

Dr. Colletso would also state as an evidence of their usefulness in Fever cases that his

ALTERATIVE PILLS

were used by His Royal Highness the PRINCE OF WHALES during his illness, and the surgeons would not allow any other Purgative Medicine to be used.

In order that the people may not be deceived in purchasing his Alterative Pills, he would state that they are all manufactured at his CENTRAL DEPOT,
32 Carondelet Street,
New Orleans.

where he prefers to receive all applications that he may send a medicine which he can guarantee and which will prevent impostors rom trying to counterfeit; but after having once used these, patients can never be deceived by the substitution of any obnoxious compound.

Price per box $1, or six boxes $5; delivered to any address in the country.

All letters and applications through the post should be addressed to

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Harper's Bazar contains, besides pictures, patterns, etc., a variety of matter of especial use and interest to the family; articles on health, dress, and housekeeping in all its branches; its editorial matter is specially adapted to the circle it is intended to interest and instruct; and it has, besides, good stories and literary matter of merit. It is not surprising that the journal, with such features, has achieved in a short time an immense success; for something of its kind was desired in thousands of families, and its publishers have filled the demand. The young lady who buys a single number of Harper's Bazar is made a subscriber for life.—New York Evening Post.

The Bazar is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is almost ideally well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average families—cannot but profit by its good sense and good taste, which, we have no doubt, are to-day making very many homes happier than they may have been before the women began taking lessons in personal and household and social management from this good-natured mentor.—The Nation, N. Y.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE

Notices of the Press.

No more delightful travels are printed in the English language than appear perpetually in HARPER'S MAGAZINE. They are read with equal interest and satisfaction by boys of every grade from eighteen to eighty. Its scientific papers, while sufficiently profound to demand the attention of the learned, are yet admirably adapted to the popular understanding, and designed as much to diffuse correct information concerning current scientific discovery as it could be if it was the organ of the "Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge." The great design of HARPER'S is to give correct information and rational amusement to the great masses of the people. There are few intelligent American families in which HARPER'S MAGAZINE would not be an appreciated and highly-welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine an intelligent reading family can less afford to be without. Many Magazines are accumulate. HARPER'S is edited. There is not a magazine that is printed which shows more intelligent pains exon its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheaper Magazine published. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.
—New England Homestead.

It is one of the wonders of journalism—the editorial management of HARPER'S.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Model Newspaper of our country. Complete in all the departments of an American Family Paper, HARPER'S WEEKLY has earned for itself a right to its title, "A JOURNAL OF CIVILIZATION."—New York Evening Post,

The best publication of its class in America, and so far ahead of all other journals as not to permit of any comparison between it and any of their number. Its columns contain the finest collections of reading matter that are printed. * * * Its illustrations are numerous and beautiful, being furnished by the chief artists of the country.—Boston Traveler.

Harper's Weekly is the best and most interesting illustrated newspaper. Nor does its value depend on its illustrations alone. Its reading matter is of a high order of literary merit—varied, instructive, entertaining, and unexceptionable.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

THE BALANCE WHEEL OF A WALTHAM WATCH BEATS

4 times a second,
240 times a minute,
14,400 times an hour,
345,600 times a day,
229,00 times a week,
10,368,000 times a month,
126,144,000 times a year.

MORE IS EXPECTED OF A WATCH, THAN ANY OTHER KIND OF MACHERY.

It must not only run all day, butall night; not only on weekdays, but on Sundays and Holidays. It must run hanging up or lying down—upside down or right side up. It must keep running when the wearer sits down or stand up, When he walks or rides. In fact, it is expected to do its duty at all times, in every place and in every position.

A Genuine Waltham Watch

will fulfil all these requirements. I wound once a day, it will faithfully tick for you a hundred and twenty-six million times in a year, without even requiring fresh oil all that time.

A Genuine Waltham Watch

CONTAINS

5 Spring, 9 wheels, 51 Screws, and 98 other parts making altogether 136 separate pieces.

ALL GENUINE WALTHAM

Watches have seven Jewels.

THE EXTRA JEWELLED HAVE ELEVEN JEWEL THE FULL JEWELLED HAVE FIFTEEN JEWELS.

Every part of a Waltham Watch is made by machinery, The machinery used in making the movement of a single watch coast over a Hundred Thousand Dollars, yet we sell these Watches, in a solid Silver Hunting Case, for $18. The same watch could not be made by hand and finisheds as perfectly for TEN TIMES AS MUCH.

A Genuine waltham Watch

Is ihterchangeable, like a Springfield rifle that is, any part of one Watch is exactly like the same part in another; and if ten Watches of one grade were taken apart, and the screws, wheels, springs, &c., were mixed together, ten watches could be made by putting these parts together again, withnot any reference to their former combination. This is a

GREAT ADVANTAGE;

For, if any part of a Waltham Watch is injured we can always replace it at a Trifling Expense.
